

NAPPO Conference Call Report

contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material.Item 3:Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020Consensus:The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.	Expert Group:	NAPPO International Year of	NAPPO International Year of Plant Health
Chairperson Lisa Lafontaine (CFIA) Participants: Greg Rosenthal Beatriz Redding Victor Hugo Rodríguez (APHIS – PPQ) (SENASICA) (SENASICA) SENASICA) Karen Stephany Miranda Adrian Digi - participated as an observer (SENASICA) Nedelka Marín-Martínez Alonso Suazo (NAPPO) Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: • IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. • NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. • The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. • The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH H article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribu	Location:	Zoom meeting
Participants: Greg Rosenthal Beatriz Redding Victor Hugo Rodríguez (APHIS – PPQ) (SENASICA) Victor Hugo Rodríguez (Xaren Stephany Miranda Adrian Digi - participated as an observer (SENASICA) NAPPO) Alonso Suazo (NAPPO) Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: • IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. • NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. • The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. • The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH	Date:	September 3, 2020	September 3, 2020
Greg Rosenthal (APHIS – PPQ) Beatriz Redding (SENASICA) Victor Hugo Rodríguez (SENASICA) Karen Stephany Miranda (SENASICA) Adrian Digi - participated as an observer (SENASICA) Nedelka Marín-Martínez Alonso Suazo (NAPPO) Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: • IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. • NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. • The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this top	Chairperson	Lisa Lafontaine (CFIA)	Lisa Lafontaine (CFIA)
(APĤIS – PPQ) (SENASICA) (SENASICA) Karen Stephany Miranda (SENASICA) Adrian Digi - participated as an observer (SENASICA) Nedelka Marín-Martínez (NAPPO) Alonso Suazo (NAPPO) Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated tha	Participants:
(SENASICA) an observer (SENASICA) (NAPPO) Alonso Suazo (NAPPO) Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during		5
Summary Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.
Project: NAPPO International Year of Plant Health Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.	Alonso Suazo (NAPPO)
Item 1: NAPPO Secretariat updates Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: • IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. • NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. • The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. • The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.		Summary
Consensus: The NAPPO TD provided the following updates: IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.	Project:	NAPPO International Year of	NAPPO International Year of Plant Health
 IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Item 2: Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles. Consensus: The next article on ePhyto is prepared by the US and Canada. Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September. The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material. Item 3: Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020 Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call. 	Item 1:	NAPPO Secretariat updates with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September.The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in North America in wood packaging material.Item 3:Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020Consensus:The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.	Item 2:	 IYPH was extended until the end of June 2021. NAPPO is migrating the website to a new platform that delivers a better user experience through a more secure environment. The Spanish version of the IYPH EG webpage is now operational. The latest article on the 120-year celebration of plant health in Mexico has been uploaded in English and Spanish in the EG IYPH website. The French version will be uploaded as soon as it is available. Updates on the September IYPH article and upcoming articles.
Consensus: The US proposed to illuminate the Washington monument for a few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.		Greg Rosenthal indicated that a draft will be available to share with the EG and the AMC for comments in mid-September.The EG discussed possible topics for future articles including the contribution of NAPPO and the mitigation of pest introductions in few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next conference call.	Item 3:	Possible EG IYPH activities in the fall 2020
Next Steps	Consensus:	few days in commemoration t indicated that a similar activity countries. Discussions on thi	few days in commemoration to the IYPH. Mexico and Canada indicated that a similar activity could be coordinated in both countries. Discussions on this topic will continue during the next
		Next Steps

Responsible Person	Action	Date
US/Canada	Provide a copy of the ePhyto article to the NAPPO	Mid-
	Secretariat.	September
NAPPO Secretariat	Translate ePhyto article into Spanish and share it with the NAPPO AMC and EG members.
Next Meeting
Location:	Zoom meeting
Date:	September 23 from 11:00 am to 12:30 pm Eastern Time
Proposed Agenda Items
1. Update on the September e-Phyto article
2. Update on the October IYPH article and the determination of November's article
3. Update (if available) on the "green building" Project
4. Roundtable				