SIDE MEETING REQUEST FORM

The NAPPO Annual Meeting provides a unique opportunity for industry, phytosanitary officials, other government officials, and scientists to meet to discuss issues of mutual concern. While the program is full and the week passes quickly, it is possible to convene special side meetings to discuss particular issues.

Meetings that are open to all participants will be added to the NAPPO Annual Meeting Agenda under the heading “Side Meetings”

Meetings that are closed to general participation will not be advertised.

If you wish to reserve a meeting room during the 2023 NAPPO Annual Meeting program, please complete and submit the following form to Sofia Baez at: sofia.baez@nappo.org by November 1, 2023.
